

*"In a time of drastic change it is the learners who inherit the future."
(Eric Hoffer)*

ESA 2007

What does this generation need to learn to inherit the future?

The Ecological Society of Australia proudly presents a public forum to be held in Perth

Monday 26th November 2007, 7.30 – 9.00pm

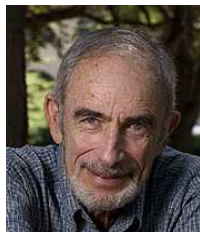

Main Auditorium, Perth Convention & Exhibition Centre

ADMISSION FREE!

Facilitated by the ABC's Robyn Williams, a distinguished panel of international and national identities will share their vision for the future in conversation with the audience. Panelists will include . . .

Hon Fred Chaney OA Fmr Fed. Minister and advocate for social justice and indigenous issues

Prof Paul Ehrlich
Ecologist and
Author, Stanford
University, USA

Dr Carmen Lawrence Federal MP and former Premier of
Western Australia

Dr Beth Schultz OA
Conservationist,
Western Australia

Prof Clive Spash
Economist and Author, CSIRO

Robyn Williams
Science
Journalist, ABC
Science Show

Adapting to Change: Society - Environment - Science

32nd Annual Conference of the Ecological Society of Australia

Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre, 26-30 Nov 2007

<http://www.ecolsoc.org.au>

Contact: esa@welldone.com.au

