The Ecological Society of Australia is a professional organisation established to promote ecological research and communication. The Society's constitutional objectives are:

- To promote the scientific study of all organisms in relation to their environment.
- To promote the application of ecological principles in the development, use and conservation of Australia's natural resources.
- To advise governmental and other agencies in matters where the application of ecological principles may be of assistance.
- To foster the reservation of natural areas for scientific and recreational purposes and seek to ensure that such areas are soundly managed.

The Ecological Society provides the following membership benefits:

- Austral Ecology, a journal of international standing – 8 issues per year
- The quarterly ESA Bulletin, a newsletter for members.
- An electronic mail discussion list for rapid communications, exchange of views, and advertising jobs or grant application deadlines.
- Online membership database @ www.ecolsoc.org.au
- Annual symposia and open forums, workshops and meetings.
- Links with international ecological bodies, including INTECOL
- Reduced subscription rate to Ecological Management and Restoration journal
- Opportunities to apply for grants and scholarships
