

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Scientist
Designation: Professional 1
Work Unit: Biodiversity North
Position number: 200117
Responsible to: P3 – 9944 Senior Scientist, Biodiversity North

Primary Objective

To contribute to biodiversity monitoring and land clearing impact studies in the Daly region.

Key Responsibilities

1. Undertake botanical surveys related to the impact of land clearing on biodiversity in the Daly region.
2. Maintain databases containing ecological data.
3. Assist in the statistical and spatial analyses of the biodiversity data.
4. Assist in preparing scientific reports and journal articles.
5. Engage with landholder and other stakeholder groups.

Selection Criteria

Essential:

1. Relevant degree
2. Demonstrated experience in vegetation survey methods.
3. Demonstrated experience working effectively in teams.
4. Demonstrated experience in the management of ecological data.
5. Current driver's licence.

Desirable:

1. Knowledge of north Australian flora.
2. Experience in liaising with diverse stakeholder groups.
3. Experience in organising logistics and remote-area field survey, including the operation of 4WD vehicle.
4. Experience in the writing of technical reports and/or journal articles.
5. Understanding of statistical and spatial analysis of ecological data.

Further Information

1. For further information please visit our website at www.nt.gov.au/nretas
2. Contact Romina Rader on (08) 89955015 or via email romina.rader@nt.gov.au